

2019-2020 STN Student of the Year Application

The STN Student of the Year recognizes dedication to broadcast journalism, film or media and a high level of achievement in journalistic, creative or video production efforts. Judges will look for consistency of effort, close attention to strong production values in all work, professionalism, related work outside the classroom, and the integrity of the final product. Produced pieces, written support documents and letters of recommendation will all be considered.

PLEASE SUBMIT THE FOLLOWING FOR CONSIDERATION:

- ✓ One portfolio video on flashdrive, 10 minutes maximum, containing the entrant's best work, any excerpts of news coverage or any other segments produced by or including the applicant. The judges will not view more than 10 minutes so we suggest you have a strong close.
- ✓ A written, typed essay on the topic: My Atypical Senior Year
- ✓ A resume of the student's related high school experience including conventions attended, training, awards, etc. Also, include in the resume plans for after high school. Resume must list complete contact information for each entry.
- ✓ Two letters of recommendation - one from the student's teacher or adviser, printed on the school's stationery and one from a professional business person or story subject.

AWARDS

The winner will receive a $1000.00 scholarship and a plaque at the 2021 STN Convention. The winner will also attend the 2021 STN Convention, address the conference group in the Opening Ceremony and work as an intern for the entire convention. STN will cover the cost of airfare, shared hotel room and meals.

Runners-up will receive certificates. All will be recognized on the STN website.

ELIGIBILITY

Seniors graduating by June 30, 2020 at current STN affiliate schools. School must be a fully paid STN affiliate, effective April 8, 2020.

Each school may enter up to two students. A school may have a winner and a runner-up.
